

DETERMINE AND ESTABLISH YOUR OWN BIOSECURITY AND TRACEABILITY HERD AND FARMING STATUS.

CONFIRM

HOW TO ESTABLISH YOUR LIVESTOCK BIOSEC ACCREDITED BUSINESS.

Your protocol must include the following mandatory requirements.

- Traceability: Compliance with The Act on the Identification of Animals; Brand Registration
- Biosecurity: Compliance with The Animal Diseases Act 1984

BUILD

THE NEXT STEPS

- Determine and evaluate your target market.
  - Each production unit, producer is unique and has an established
  - market or plans to target a new market.
- Determine what your target market requirements are regarding Biosecurity and Traceability (B&T).
  - Weaner buyers and feedlots, similarly the bull and breeder markets have their own unique requirements.
- Use the BIOSEK GUIDELINES, [5 steps] supplied by BIOSEK free of charge to you as a participating producer and build your own Biosecurity and traceability protocol.
  - Make sure all mandatory health and traceability requirements are included in your protocol.
- Implement and keep track of your protocol compliance.
  - Examples are included in the guideline steps and must include the retention of invoices, laboratory test results etc. are considered in support of compliance.

ACHIEVE ACCREDITED BIOSEK MEMBERSHIP STATUS

- You are now ready to take the next voluntary step to include your business (herd, farm, production unit) on the first and only producer driven NATIONAL BIOSEK REGISTER and marketing platform for a nominal annual fee.
- Get your designated herd vet to complete the Compliance form (provided by BIOSEK for your convenience) to confirm your B&N compliance status and enter it on the BIOSEK
- MARKETING PLATFORM for marketing purposes. The herd vet can make changes to the form and provide more information at their discretion
- ACCREDITATION HAS OBVIOUS benefits for both producer and client and provision is also made on the marketing platform for further marketing of the herd and farming. Feel free to ask for more about this by contacting us.
